

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time

by Mark Haddon

A Select Bibliography of Media Materials

All items are located in the Hodges Library Media

Center or Studio on the 2nd floor unless otherwise noted.

See the Media Center's web page at < <http://www.lib.utk.edu/mediacenter/>> for the hours and circulation policies of the Center and Studio.

Autism, Mental & Physical Disabilities

Ability, Not Disability

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: RM931.H6 A25 1975

“Focuses on the Cheff Center for the Handicapped, the first riding therapy center in the United States, established in Augusta, Mich. in 1970. Examines how the center is operated, the therapeutic benefits of riding horses, and the center’s instructor-trainee program.”

Autism--a World Apart

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RJ506.A9 C8 1989

“Looks at three families with children with autism ranging in age from six to twenty-six. Parents and siblings discuss the heartaches, strains, and rewards of living with autism.”

Autism is a World

Hodges Media Center / DVD: RJ506 .A9 A9225 2005

“Sue Rubin, who is autistic, was diagnosed and treated for mental retardation until the age of 13, when she began to communicate using a keyboard. She is now a junior in college. This documentary takes the viewer on a journey into her mind, her daily world, and her life with autism.”

Benny & Joon

Hodges Media Center / DVD: PN1997.B45 2001

“A mentally ill young woman who lives with her older brother find her love in an eccentric young man who models himself after Buster Keaton.”

The Brain

Hodges Media Center / DVD: QP376 .B695 2002

“Tape 3. Psychological disorders (26. Schizophrenia: symptoms) -- disc 3. 27. Schizophrenia: etiology; 28. Schizophrenia: pharmacological treatment; 29. Autism)”

Breaking the Attitude Barrier: Learning to Value People with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HD7256.U5 B7 1991

“Addresses common myths, fears, and stereotypes about people with disabilities. Looks at employment barrier that have prevented people with disabilities from being hired, promoted, and accepted into the workforce. Show how one organization is sensitizing its workforce”

Canine Companions for Independence

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: HV1569.6.C36 1975

“Describes using dogs to assist people with mobility and hearing disabilities.”

Creating a World of Opportunities: Liberating People through Adaptive Technologies

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HV1569.5.C73 1995

“Videorecording of a teleconference that took place on May 18, 1995 on how modern technology has facilitated opportunities for the disabled in education and the workplace.”

Day by Day: Raising the Child with Autism/PDD

Hodges Media Center/Videocassette: RJ506.A9 D3 1992

“A presentation of children with autism, which includes topics such as disability, symptoms, coping, as well as acceptance. Discussions relating to these topics are also included.”

Dialogues with Madwomen

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RC451.4.W6 D5 2001

“Features seven women--including the filmmaker--describing their experiences with manic depression, multiple personalities, schizophrenia, euphoria, and recovery. Candid interviews are combined with dramatic reenactments and visualizations of each women's history, emotions, and dreams--the private symbols of madness and sanity. The social dimensions of women and mental illness are revealed in testimony about sexual assault, incest, racism and homophobia, the abuses of the medical establishment, family, and church.”

The Dolphin Swim

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: QL85 .D66 1990z

“Explores the interactions that develop between humans and bottle nose dolphins at Dolphins Plus in the Florida Keys -- first in a program for autistic children, then in a weekend workshop for adults.”

Empowering People with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RM698 .E46 1999

“Technology is helping the physically challenged to improve their quality of life through greater independence. This program features inventions created to enhance self-sufficiency, with a spotlight on TETRA. Founded by Sam Sullivan and three other quadriplegics, TETRA, which stands for the Greek number four; is dedicated to recruiting technically skilled volunteers from the engineering and manufacturing sectors to create assistive devices not readily available in the marketplace.”

Festival of Dreams: Living with Mental Retardation through Special Education, Special Olympics and Independent Living

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: GV722.5.S64 F47 1998

“An inspiring look at two people with mental retardation and the community of family, educators, employers and friends who encouraged them to achieve.”

How Difficult Can This Be?: Understanding Learning Disabilities: Frustration, Anxiety, Tention, the F.A.T. City Workshop

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: LC4704.H6 1989

“A group experiences life the way a learning disabled student does and learns methods of teaching and helping such students.”

An Institution without Walls

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HV1559.G3 I57 1975

“Examines the Bethel Institutions of Bielefeld, Germany. Established as an institute for epileptics in 1867, the institutions today help patients with many types of physical and mental disabilities to realize their full potential. Also examines the therapeutic use of dogs, cats, birds, and horses at Bethel.”

Kerry

Ag-Vet. Med Library/Videocassette in stacks: SF309.26.H35 K47 1996

“A documentary about Kerry Knaus-Hardy, a quadriplegic woman who was the first participant in Canine Companions for Independence and was a founder of Horseback Outdoor/Recreation and Specialized Equipment and Services (H.O.R.S.E.S., Ltd.), a recreational riding program for the physically challenged.”

Learning Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: LC4704.L3 1987

“Selections from the videorecording of a teleconference that took place on May 18, 1995 on how modern technology has facilitated opportunities for the disabled in education and the workplace.”

Living with Disabilities

Hodges media Center/Videocassette: HV1568.J66 1998

“Beverly Kirby Jones, Ms. Wheelchair of Tennessee for 1998, explains what it is like to be a person with disabilities, including the type of adjustments that are made.”

No Barriers

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: G709.3.N63 1994

“Paraplegic Mark Wellman climbs Yosemite’s El Capitan and half Dome. With a small crew of disabled friends he sea kayaks with whales, alpine sis the steeps and deeps, whitewater kayaks off waterfalls, cross country skis across the high Sierra on arm power...”

People First: Serving & Employing People with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: Z711.92.H3 P43

“Demonstrates ways to break down both physical and attitudinal barriers in libraries seeking to serve patrons or employ individuals with disabilities”

Rain Man

Hodges Media Center / DVD: PN1997 .R18 2004

Hodges Media Center / Videodisc: PN1997 .R18

“A callous young hustler living in California finds his father has died and left him only rose bushes and a ‘49 Buick convertible. Feeling cheated out of what he thinks should be his 3 million dollar inheritance, he kidnaps the autistic brother he never knew he had, and takes him on the ride of his life.”

Responding the the Handicapped

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RA776.5.D63 1990

“Presents attitudes that the general population has towards the disabled and ways in which people may interact with disabled people more productively”

The Right Future: Beyond Institutionalization

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HV1570.5.N6 R54 1999

“For people with developmental disabilities, misunderstanding, fear and financial constraints historically have created barriers to successful community living. This documentary is a profile of the Right Future project, a program that integrates people with developmental disabilities into the community beyond the traditional group home approach. Project personnel, hospital staff, social workers and family members discuss the challenges of helping those living at Waterford Hospital in Newfoundland to transition to community living and share in their triumphs.”

Selected Cuts from Creating a World of Opportunities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HV1569.5.S44 1995

“Selections from the videorecording of a teleconference that took place on May 18, 1995 on how modern technology has facilitated opportunities for the disabled in education and the workplace.”

Withstanding Ovation

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RJ138.W47 1993

“Profiles the lives of Daniel Massey and Shandra “Peaches” Allen, two youths born without limbs who have learned to compensate for their physical disabilities.”

Working Together: Faculty and Students with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: LC4819.W67 1994

“Demonstrates how computer technology is equalizing the higher education process for disabled students and suggests ways of modifying teaching methods to accommodate disabled students.”

Children & Trust, Lying, Death, and Divorce

Angels Don't Have Headlights: Children's Reactions to Death in the Family

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: BF723.G75 A54 1991

“Interviews with four children aged through eleven reveal how youngsters at different stages of development react to bereavement.”

Do Children Also Divorce?

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HQ777.5.D65

“Shows teachers and parents the important role they must play in meeting children's needs during a divorce.”

Everyone's Child

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: PN1997.E96 1996

“In a rural village in Zimbabwe, Tamari and Itai are devastated following the tragic death of both their parents. For the children this is a time of fear and survival as family and neighbors turn their heads. The social climate in the city is just as hostile as it is in the village. In the end it is only tragedy that can bridge the gulf of denial between the two worlds and make the community realize that these are everyone's children.”

A Family in Grief: The Ameche Story

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: BF575.G7

“Shows the heartfelt thoughts, feelings, and experiences of parents and siblings regarding a sudden death in their family. Viewers will gain insights into the highly personal process of grieving.”

For the Love of Ben: A Father’s View

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: BF724.3.S38 F6 1989

“Examines the psychological impact on a child of his separation from his father following his parents’ divorce..”

Sherlock Holmes

O Xangô de Baker Street

Hodges Media Center / DVD: PN1995.9 .F67 X36 2001

“Sherlock Holmes and Watson are invited to Brazil to solve the mysterious disappearance of a Stradivarius violin.”

Silver Blaze

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: PN1997 .S498

“Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson investigate the apparent theft of a race horse and the murder of his trainer.”

Young Sherlock Holmes

Hodges Media Center / DVD: PN1997 .Y67 2003

“When assorted people start having inexplicable delusions that lead to their deaths, a teenage Sherlock Holmes investigates.”