

Disability Awareness

A Select Bibliography of Media Materials

All items are located in the Hodges Library Media Center or Studio on the 2nd floor unless otherwise noted.

See the Media Center's web page at < <http://www.lib.utk.edu/mediacenter/>> for the hours and circulation policies of the Center and Studio.

Ability, Not Disability

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: RM931.H6 A25 1975

"Focuses on the Cheff Center for the Handicapped, the first riding therapy center in the United States, established in Augusta, Mich. in 1970. Examines how the center is operated, the therapeutic benefits of riding horses, and the center's instructor-trainee program."

AgrAbility: Promoting Success in Agriculture for People with Disabilities

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: HV1553 .A67 1993

The Americans with Disabilities Act: New Access to the Workplace

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: KF3469 .A55

Examines the ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) through workplace interviews and dramatic vignettes, and explains how the law affects employers and procedures to implement it.

And Access for All: ADA and Your Library

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: Z711.92.H3 A5 1993

This video training package is meant to be used in the way which is most beneficial for workshop presenters to libraries: as a tape alone for introducing the ADA, as a discussion starter to heighten staff awareness, or as a full workshop with many resources, including speakers, handouts, and other materials.

Born on the Fourth of July

Hodges Media Center / DVD: PN1997 .B6798 2004

A young man joins the army and fights in Vietnam, only to become a wheelchair-bound paraplegic resulting from battle. He then becomes a loud voice in the anti-war movement. Based on Ron Kovic's book.

Breaking the Attitude Barrier: Learning to Value People with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HD7256.U5 B7 1991

Addresses common myths, fears, and stereotypes about people with disabilities. Looks at employment barriers that have prevented people with disabilities from being hired, promoted, and accepted into the workforce. Shows how one organization is sensitizing its workforce.

Canine Companions for Independence

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: HV1569.6 .C36 1975

Describes using dogs to assist people with mobility and hearing disabilities.

Coming Home

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: PN1997 .C72

A volunteer at a veterans hospital falls in love with a disabled veteran while her husband fights in Vietnam.

Communication Means Business

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HV1553 .C54 1992

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) requires facilities and programs to ensure effective communication with people who have hearing, speech, and language problems, including providing auxiliary aids and services. This video provides an overview of ADA requirements and accessibility for people with communicative impairments.

Creating a World of Opportunities: Liberating People Through Adaptive Technologies

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HV1569.5 .C73 1995

Day By Day: Raising a Child with Autism/PDD

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RJ506.A9 D3 1992

Diabetes: Managing a 21st Century Lifestyle Disease

Preston Medical Library / Stacks: RC660 .D531 2000

Driving for the Disabled: Getting Underway

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: SF309.26.H35 D75 1989

Following background information about the history and goals of Driving for the Disabled, Inc. presented by its founder, Sybil Dukehart; Richard Wilcke discusses how driving or a driving curriculum can be added to ongoing horsemanship programs for the disabled.

Empowering People with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RM698 .E46 1999

(Producer) Technology is helping the physically challenged to improve their quality of life through greater independence. This program features inventions created to enhance self-sufficiency, with a spotlight on TETRA. Founded by Sam Sullivan and three other quadriplegics, TETRA, which stands for the Greek number four; is dedicated to recruiting technically skilled volunteers from the engineering and manufacturing sectors to create assistive devices not readily available in the marketplace.

Enable: People with Disabilities and Computers

Social Work Library, Nashville / Audiovisual: HV1569.5 .E53 1999

Farming with an Upper Extremity Amputation

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: S494.5.A4 F374 1995

Festival of Dreams: Living with Mental Retardation Through Special Education, Special Olympics and Independent Living

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: GV722.5.S64 F47 1998

An inspiring look at two people with mental retardation and the community of family, educators, employers and friends who encouraged them to achieve.

Forest Gump

Hodges Media Center / DVD: PN1997 .F657 2001

The story follows the life of low I.Q. Forrest Gump (Tom Hanks) and his meeting with the love of his life Jenny. The film chronicles his accidental experiences with some of the most important people and events in America from the late 1950's through the 1970's including a meeting with Elvis Presley, JFK, Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon, fighting in Vietnam, etc. The problem is, he doesn't realize the significance of his actions. Forrest comes to embody a generation.

O Herói = The Hero

Hodges Media Center / DVD: PN1995.9 .F67 H4555 2005

“Luanda, capital of Angola, is a huge city trying to cope with and overcome the profound legacy of a civil war that lasted for nearly 30 years. Vitorio has just been discharged after almost 20 years of fighting in the war. During his last military assignment he stepped on a land mine and lost a leg. After recuperating, he finds himself alone, unemployed and homeless. He, along with the people that he encounters, attempt to build new lives at the same time as their country reconstructs in the postwar era.”

How Difficult Can This Be?: Understanding Learning Disabilities: Frustration, Anxiety, Tension, the F.A.T. City Workshop

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: LC4704 .H6 1989

A group experiences life the way a learning disabled student does and learns methods of teaching and helping such students.

Improving Your Rural Business with the ADA

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: HV1553 .I53 1994

An Institution Without Walls

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: HV1559.G3 I57 1975

Examines the Bethel Institutions of Bielefeld, Germany. Established as an institute for epileptics in 1867, the institutions today help patients with many types of physical and mental disabilities to realize their full potential. Also examines the therapeutic use of dogs, cats, birds, and horses at Bethel.

Kerry

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: SF309.26.H35 K47 1996

A documentary about Kerry Knaus-Hardy, a quadriplegic woman who was the first participant in Canine Companions for Independence and was a founder of Horseback Outdoor/Recreation and Specialized Equipment and Services (H.O.R.S.E.S., Ltd.), a recreational riding program for the physically challenged.

Learning Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: LC4704 .L3 1987

Describes the nature of learning disabilities and their warning signs. Exploring frequently misdiagnosed and misunderstood problems, it explains the importance of early detection and treatment.

Living with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HV1568 .J66 1998

Beverly Kirby Jones, Ms. Wheelchair of Tennessee for 1998, explains what it is like to be a person with disabilities, including the type of adjustments that are made.

Mona's Ark

Ag-Vet. Med Library / DVD in stacks: RM931.A65 M66 2005

Documents the Occupational Therapy program, delivered through Rehab Services of Roanoke (Virginia). "Serving children with autism, hearing impairments, and physical challenges for several reasons: its attention to administrative and vet concerns, and its variety of animals, including llamas."

Murderball

Hodges Media Center / DVD: GV945 .M87 2005

Documents the personal stories and fierce competition of American and Canadian wheelchair rugby players as they prepare for the 2004 Paralympic Games.

Music for Special Education Programs

Music Library / Videocassette in stacks: MT1 .K4 v.5

Nell J. Sins shows how to adapt music teaching materials and methods to the special learner. Classroom footage demonstrating techniques is included. A brief period of questions and answers follows.

No Barriers

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: G709.3 .N63 1994

"Paraplegic Mark Wellman climbs Yosemite's El Capitan and Half Dome. With a small crew of disabled friends he sea kayaks with whales, alpine skis the steeps and deeps, whitewater kayaks off waterfalls, cross country skis across the high Sierra on arm power ..."--Container label.

On a Roll: Family, Disability & the American Dream

Hodges Media Center / DVD: HV3013 .S65 2005

Open to the Public

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: KF3469.A32 A163 1994

"This video provides an overview of the Americans with Disabilities Act as it applies to state and local governments. The ADA doesn't provide recommendations for solving common problems, but this film could provide enough information for governments to solve some common problems without turning to high-priced consultants"--Container label.

Passion Fish

Hodges Media Center / DVD: PN1997 .P3625 1998

A handicapped ex-soap opera star and her nurse explore the murkier aspects of men, romance, and family in the Louisiana bayou.

The Patient with Physical Disabilities: Issues in Gynecologic Care

Preston Medical Library / Stacks: RA564.85 .P3 1996

People First: Serving & Employing People with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: Z711.92.H3 P43

Demonstrates ways to break down both physical and attitudinal barriers in libraries seeking to serve patrons or employ individuals with disabilities.

A Perfect Fit: 4-H Involvement for Youth with Disabilities

Ag-Vet. Med Library / Videocassette in stacks: S533.F66 P47 1996

Responding to the Handicapped

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RA776.5 .D63 1990

Presents attitudes that the general population has towards the disabled and ways in which people may interact with disabled people more productively.

The Right Future: Beyond Institutionalization

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: HV1570.5.N6 R54 1999

For people with developmental disabilities, misunderstanding, fear and financial constraints historically have created barriers to successful community living. This documentary is a profile of the Right Future project, a program that integrates people with developmental disabilities into the community beyond the traditional group home approach. Project personnel, hospital staff, social workers and family members discuss the challenges of helping those living at Waterford Hospital in Newfoundland to transition to community living and share in their triumphs.

Valuing Diversity: Multi-Cultural Communication

Social Work Library, Nashville / Audiovisual: HM1211 .V35 1995

A study of prejudice toward people who are different. Viewers learn how to decrease their discomfort in communicating with people from different cultures, social classes, age groups, or physical disabilities.

Withstanding Ovation

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: RJ138 .W47 1993

Profiles the lives of Daniel Massey and Shandra "Peaches" Allen, two youths born without limbs who have learned to compensate for their physical disabilities.

Working Together: Faculty and Students with Disabilities

Hodges Media Center / Videocassette: LC4819 .W67 1994

Demonstrates how computer technology is equalizing the higher education process for disabled students and suggests ways of modifying teaching methods to accommodate disabled students.