

Honor with Books at the UT Libraries

Pay tribute to a special person in your life with the UT Libraries' Honor with Books program. With your $50 contribution, our librarians will select a book in the subject area you designate. Then, a bookplate honoring the person of your choice will be entered into the libraries' catalog.

Books are still of primary importance to the educational mission of the University of Tennessee. Your participation in Honor with Books will provide a lasting resource for the university while recognizing your honoree.

Honor with Books offers an enduring expression of appreciation for the people who have enriched our lives: teachers, students, new graduates, parents, colleagues, and friends.

When you make your tax-deductible gift to Honor with Books, a letter of acknowledgement will be sent to you and your honoree (or his or her family). In addition, your name will be listed in the libraries' annual publication, the Library Development Review.
