How to find Music Library materials

Use the Library’s Catalog at any of our computers or your own to identify what we own and to obtain call numbers for music materials: http://lib.utk.edu/catalog. To locate the items you want, ask for help at the circulation desk.

See CATALOG HELP on our homepage to learn catalog searching tips or ask a staff member for assistance.

How to borrow materials

With a valid UTK ID card, you may borrow most books and scores for the following loan periods:

- Undergraduate 28 Days
- Graduate 112 Days
- Faculty & Staff 365 Days

A/V item borrowing guide:
- Faculty may check out A/V items for 3 days.
- All students may check out 3 CDs & 3 DVDS for 3 days.

Some exceptions include reserve materials and reference materials.

If a desired item is checked out, you may request or recall the item at the circulation desk or online through the library catalog.

How to find articles, online audio, and research help

With the help of a 2000+ volume music reference collection, online journal indexes, and other internet resources, music librarians and specialized staff are able to assist you with reference or research questions.

Consult MUSIC RESOURCES on our homepage to find journal articles and gain access to online encyclopedias such as Grove Music Online. Other online resources are also available:

- Naxos Music Library, Naxos Music Library: Jazz, Alexander Street Press’s Jazz Music Library & Music Online are streaming audio databases that may be accessed on any device 24 hours a day with your NetID and password.
- UT Song Index provides access to more than 65,000 songs in more than 2,050 anthologies owned by the music library.
- UT Analysis Index provides access to program notes and descriptions or analyses of musical compositions in books owned by the music library.
- Find Subject Guides to research on the Music Library’s homepage. These include guides to many different genres, instruments, and areas of study in music.

How to renew books, request holds, and request PDF scans

Login to MY ACCOUNT from the UT Library Catalog in order to:

- View due dates of items you have checked out
- Renew books
- Request books (via a “hold” or “recall”)
- Request PDF scans of articles or chapters via our Scan on Demand Service

How to find items on reserve

To supplement required materials, many faculty members put materials on reserve. To find the instructor’s reserve list, click on the “Course Reserves” tab under the main search bar on our homepage. Select the type of search you prefer from the drop-down list and begin your search.

Physical reserve items are located at the circulation desk. Please ask a staff member for assistance retrieving these items.
