

Special Collections at UTK Libraries – ENG 102

General Information:

- * Special Collections is located on Hodges Library's first floor (above OneStop, below The Commons).
- * We're open from 9:00 to 5:30, Monday through Friday.
- * If you have questions, call 974-4480 or email special@utk.edu. We're happy to help.

Research:

- * To support English 102 projects, we've made teaching collections. These collections are available for your reading room use whenever we're open. Information about the teaching collections is on the next page and can also be found at <http://www.lib.utk.edu/special/instruction/english102/>
- * Many of our primary sources have been digitized. You can see what's available at <http://digital.lib.utk.edu/index.php?gid=1>
- * Read the descriptions of the materials available in the teaching collections. Make note of which collection and which box you are interested in. Some of the teaching collections are large and cover many topics, so focus your search before you arrive.
- * Give yourself plenty of time for your visit: primary sources can take a while to work with.

While you're here:

- * Bring a photo ID to register at the front desk.
- * Bring a camera/smartphone to photograph pages for later reference
- * Because our materials are one-of-a-kind, visitors may not have food, drink, pens, or bags.
- * Put bags and coats in the lockers provided.
- * Be sure to record the citation information for anything you might use. The standard format is:

[Identification of Item], [Title of Collection, AR.#### or MS.####]. University of Tennessee Libraries, Knoxville, Special Collections. (Note: square brackets aren't part of the actual citation.)

- * Ask any questions you have – the staff members are here to help.
